

A collection of hand-drawn doodles on lined paper. The doodles include various cartoonish faces, shapes, and figures. Some figures have labels like 'AA' or 'A'. The drawings are scattered across the page, with some at the top and others at the bottom. The doodles are drawn in black ink on blue-lined paper. The figures are mostly simple shapes with faces, some with multiple eyes or mouths. There are also some abstract shapes and a few small figures that look like animals or characters. The overall style is whimsical and childlike.
